

Action In Widening Main St. Possibility, May Remove Curbing

Deputy-Reeve Arthur D. Evans is going to have the men of the water and light department remove the telephone poles from the west side of Main St. from Park Ave. to Botsford St. as soon as possible so that work can be commenced on the removal of the curb in order to widen Main St.

Frank Bowser, chairman of the roads and bridges committee of the council, stated this week that as soon as the poles are removed, his men will begin taking up the curb.

The widening of Main St. was re-introduced into council by Councillor George Byers on Monday night. His statement that Main St. should be widened as soon as possible was greeted with approval from most members of the council. Councillor Joseph Vale, while not opposing the scheme, expressed doubt as to its value.

"Now that the war is over, it is time we did something about Main St.," said Mr. Byers. "I strongly urge that the curbing on either side of Main St. be removed."

"The engineer told us that we could widen Main St. from two and a half to five feet by removing the curb," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. "I think it is a great thing."

"We narrow the sidewalk and crowd pedestrians to enable cars to drive through the town faster if we take off the curb," said Mr. Vale.

"I agree with Mr. Byers about widening Main St.," said Mr. Bowser. "We could take one block and remove the curb and see how it works. We could start on the west side of Main St. between the post office and Botsford St. There are only a few poles to remove."

"We can move the poles," said Deputy-Reeve Evans.

Specialty Employees Ask For Police At Rush Hours

A letter was read from the national union of furniture workers at the Office Specialty Co. asking the council to provide police protection at the corner of Main and Timothy Sts. during the rush hours at noon and 5 p.m. at the Monday night meeting of the Newmarket town council.

Following considerable discussion, council decided to hand the letter over to the police chief for action.

"There is never a policeman on Main St.," said Councillor Joseph Vale. "Maybe some arrangement could be made with Chief Constable Leeder," suggested Councillor Frank Bowser.

"It is not our responsibility," countered Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. "It is not fair to the taxpayers to stand the cost of the extra policing. If the factory workers want the corners protected they should appoint their own policeman."

PARK AVE. W. ACCEPTED AS PART OF TOWN

The Newmarket town council passed a resolution at the meeting Monday night urging the annexation of land north and south of Park Ave. to the depth of the building lots and as far west as the bush. The resolution is the result of a petition signed by nine property owners on Park Ave. asking for the annexation.

The resolution and the petition are now to be forwarded to the municipal board in Toronto for approval. Wesley Brooks, town clerk, was instructed to write a letter to Whitechurch council notifying it of the proposed annexation and suggesting a meeting to decide an equalization of the loss of assets the township will suffer as a result.

Speaking on the resolution, Reeve F. A. Lundy said that at the last council meeting, it had been suggested that the annexation include land south of Park Ave. to Eagle St. "The property owners fronting on Eagle St. are opposed to being annexed," he stated. "Also there is a bad ravine in the area which would be a constant source of expense and bother to the town. Under these circumstances it was thought best to annex only that property lying on either side of Park Ave. and as far west as the bush."

The town will install water mains into the annexed property within a short time, Deputy-Reeve Arthur D. Evans promised.

Councillors George Byers and A. V. Higginson were re-appointed by Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales to negotiate the town's share in the cost of a public supervised washroom with the Newmarket Women's Institute at the council meeting Monday night.

The appointment followed an appeal by Mr. Byers for the council to make a decision on what the town's share should be. "If you remember, we promised to give every aid to the Women's Institute in making this public washroom available," he said. "So far we have done nothing."

"The women are doing something which is really the town's responsibility," he continued. "This is for women and children," queried Mayor Dales. "Yes," replied Mr. Byers. "The cost to the town would be in the neighborhood of $400 or $500." "This project has hung fire a long time," said Dr. Dales. "It is time we were doing something."

"It is a disgrace that a town this size and having the rural trade it does has not this facility available to the public," said Mr. Byers. "There is sufficient room in the municipal building for such a washroom. An entry could be made from the rear of the building." Mr. Byers and Mr. Higginson were instructed to bring in a report at the next council meeting.

Erect New Factory On Huron St. E. To Make Wood Fixtures

Work has begun in the laying of the foundations for a new factory on Huron St. east of the old Metropolitan right of way. The factory is being built by A. R. Howlett and Aubrey G. Scythes for the manufacture of doors and wooden kitchen cabinets, as well as other mill work.

The Newmarket town council Monday night passed a by-law deciding a 100-foot frontage, 300 feet deep to the new company for the sum of $100. A two-year option on the property west of the site to be used for future expansion if necessary was also included.

The factory, a one-storey construction, will be 80 feet by 160 feet and will have a boiler room 20 feet square. The factory will employ a considerable staff but neither of the partners would commit himself as to how many until they had time to estimate their needs.

At the present time, the A. G. Scythes Co., which will be incorporated into the new firm, has been operating in the east part of the Dixon Pencil Co. building where kitchen cabinets and other wooden articles have been manufactured since its founder returned from active service with the navy.

The increasing demand for wooden fixtures has enabled the construction of the factory.

"This will mean a lot to the town," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales when the by-law was presented. "It is something Newmarket has needed."

The by-law was read by Councillor Joseph Vale who, as chairman of the industrial committee, has played an important part in the negotiations.

STOP SIGN RUSTED, TWO CARS COLLIDE

Three women were given a severe shaking up when the car in which they were riding collided with another at the corner of Queen and Main Sts. Friday night. One of the women, Mrs. George Timmins, Sutton, was thrown out of the car and onto the street by the impact of the collision.

The accident occurred when a car driven by Alfred Cramer, Toronto, and travelling west on Queen St., collided with that driven by George Timmins which was travelling north on Main St. The impact forced the first car into a third car, owned by Ross Parks, Aurora, which was parked on Main St. beside the Church of the Nazarene.

Chief Constable James F. Leeder, who investigated with Constable Stewart Martin, said that Mr. Cramer had stated he was unable to see the stop sign at Queen and Main Sts. The stop sign is badly rusted and in the dark, unrecognizable. No charge was laid.

DEED FOR THE PROPERTY AND SIN

ISSUE BETWEEN RUSSIA, OTHER ALLIES

The reports from the foreign ministers' conference in London are disquieting. They tell of bitter words between Russia's Molotov and Britain's Bevin, of the efforts of America's Byrnes to bring about agreement and his failure. The reports tell of snubs to France and China, of refusal to compromise.

Writing towards the end of the conference, which closed Tuesday in a deadlock and with no plans made for a future conference, Herbert L. Mathews, New York Times correspondent, reports: "What was meant to be a peace conference ends in worse than failure. The world is further from peace tonight than it was three weeks ago when the Council of Foreign Ministers began."

The deadlock developed over a disagreement on protocol between Molotov on one hand, and Byrnes and Bevin on the other. When the council first assembled, it was agreed that the representatives of the Big Five, Russia, England, U.S.A., China and France, would attend all meetings and take part in all discussions but on peace settlements, only those governments which had been signatories to the terms would be entitled to vote.

This procedure was followed for 11 days when Molotov insisted that the above proviso be expunged from the records and the discussion of the Danubian treaties be confined to the Big Three only. Byrnes and Bevin opposed such a move and the deadlock was formed. Molotov argued that his interpretation of how the conference should proceed was based on the Potsdam declarations. Byrnes and Bevin argued that there has been an agreement on how the conference should proceed and to bow to Molotov's demand would be to falsify the records.

Though Molotov cited Potsdam as his precedent for the change in procedure, a New York Times correspondent, C. L. Sulzberger, notes that "it is believed that the Soviet Commissar was irritated by the continual four-to-one opposition that he was meeting."

It is too often forgotten that while Russia fought as one of the United Nations, it did so only after invaded by Germany. Russia fought for self protection. During the war, the others of the United Nations have been content to call Russia a democracy but in truth, Russia is a totalitarian state, a representative of the same system of government that the United Nations sought to erase in Germany and Italy.

This fact was of no account between Russia and the other United Nations as long as the Russian system of government was confined to Russia. Unfortunately, however, Russia has been taking definite steps to communize Balkan nations which lie along its borders. Under the guise of "free elections," communists are being placed in office by methods that not even Tammany Hall would have used in its heyday. Here, we believe, is the real issue between Molotov and the other foreign ministers.

It is unfortunate that such an issue must arise but it is better that it be settled now than to ignore it against the time armed conflict will be the only way of settling it.

WHAT MAKES A HOME?

The housing shortage has had this advantage, it has renewed the meaning of the word "home." Crowded into too-small rooms, lacking security of tenure, accepting conditions unheard of in normal times without complaint, large numbers of Canadians are learning that a place to hang their hat does not in any sense of the word constitute a home.

Ask the man who has been crowded with his wife and children into three rooms where he must eat, sleep and live, if those rooms make a home. Ask the man who lives in a boarding house whether it is home. A roof to shed the rain, four walls to repel the cold meet the primary needs of existence but they do not make a home.

Home by our definition is a place where you put up curtain rods, bruising your thumb in the process. Home is where you rearrange the furniture four or five times in order to get the best effect. Home is where your possessions are gathered so they can be enjoyed by yourself and your friends. Home is where there is peace and security and well being.

Large numbers of Canadians have had to do without these things which formerly they took for granted. As they moved about the country doing war work, or as wives followed their service husbands to their army camps and sought to make homes in a boarding house room, they have learned that a shelter is not enough. There must be scope to exercise that instinct we all possess to assert our personalities through our environment. We can use a tumbledown shack for a shelter but until we have hung the curtains and laid the carpet, washed the windows and laid out the slippers beside the grate, it will not be a home.

In Passing

It is said that September's rainfall was the heaviest in 10 years. Participation in such an achievement is poor consolation for the inconvenience it has caused. The rain has hampered farmers, it has made what can be a pleasant month a cold and damp one. The steady rain has frayed nerves and given us all cause to wish we were back in August even though at times the heat was stifling.

What Others Think

WHAT'S BAD ABOUT BUREAUCRATS

(The Financial Post)

About the time of World War I, Louis Brandeis was regarded as one of America's brightest and most promising legal lights. The Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court had described Brandeis as the ablest and most fearless man who had ever appeared before the august body. President Wilson hoped to get Brandeis into his cabinet, instead put him on the Supreme Court (where he remained until 1939).

Among the solemn public pronouncements of this distinguished figure are these: In 1914 he declared that the railroads had "reached the point of saturation of business" ten or fifteen years back (1899-1904).

About the same time he complained about the high cost of insurance for the lower income groups. He compared what a worker would get from a certain insurance company if he paid premiums for 40 years (unfavorably) with what he would get if he put the same premiums into a savings bank for 40 years "if an interest rate of three and a half percent is maintained."

Here is the great Brandeis of the famous mind, the confidant of presidents, saying railroads had reached the end of their business growth around the turn of the century.

His logic on insurance was worse. People who took his advice on that subject too would have no cause to praise him.

Some would have died a few months or years after starting to put their "premiums" into a bank savings fund. Their heirs would get only what had been paid in, with a little interest.

Some would have lived long enough to see the Brandeis plan for their future security deliver very much less than it promised because bank interest rates did not stay at three and a half percent but slumped to one and a half and less.

We tell this story not to chide lustre from the name and fame of the late (1941) Louis Brandeis. His reputation as one of the great minds of his time is quite safe.

But there is a mighty moral here. All men are mortal and fallible. The great and the wise also make mistakes, misread the past, get confused about the present and are, like lesser men, often myopic and squint-eyed about the future.

In the totalitarian, bureaucratic state, Brandeis would almost inevitably have held a high place. He would have had great influence and power. With his wide reputation as "one of the bright minds," citizens have felt safe in his hands; would have been predisposed in favor of his policies.

In the totalitarian, bureaucratic state, Brandeis would have had the power to influence, to give legislative form to his convictions about railroads and life insurance. Sincerely convinced that he was "planning" in the best interests of the American people, he would undoubtedly have undertaken "nationalization" of the U.S. railroad industry, prevented "waste of productive energy" on their continued expansion and development.

Again acting sincerely "in the public interest" Brandeis would undoubtedly have sought by legislative means to prevent or discourage the "common man" from buying "expensive" life insurance instead of trusting to long life, unimpaired earning power, and three and a half percent on his bank deposits.

The totalitarian system of government by bureaucracy says in effect, "We will give you a wise, orderly government by men who are infallible. We will assemble the wise, the honest, the expert men who know the past, really comprehend the present, correctly forecast the future—we shall lead you into Utopia."

In the individual enterprise system, the system where citizens are constantly making their own decisions about buying, selling, making, saving, spending, etc., some people are making the right decision, some are making the wrong. But not everybody is wrong at the same time. And no bureaucrat is able to force you to cease increasing your railroad business, nor to force you to try building your future security and that of your dependents on the presumption of long life and a fixed interest rate.

MEAT RATIONING

(Orillia Packet and Times)

Mr. Hsley's impressive presentation of the reasons why meat rationing has had to be imposed should settle the question as far as the public is concerned. He revealed that there had been a falling off of 270 million pounds in the slaughtering in export plants during the first eight months of the year. Unless drastic steps were taken Canada would be unable to meet the commitments to which she was pledged, not only by international agreement but by considerations of humanity. The meat rationing system was designed to reduce Canada's consumption of meat from 145 pounds per capita per annum to 130 pounds. The latter figure was still 10 percent above pre-war standards. The people of Great Britain were allowed to spend only one shilling and two pence a week on meat, with three ounces of bacon. In France the ration was 14 ounces a month, when they could get it, in Holland just over one-fifth of a pound a week, or about 12 pounds a year, and in Belgium a little over an ounce a day. Not only ordinary humanity, but self interest, impelled Canadians to share what meat was available with these people, upon whose economic recovery our own prosperity depended. There were plenty of facilities for handling the export meat, and Britain was making shipping available. Canada was not only obligated to the people of Britain and the liberated countries of Europe, but was pledged to the United States to do her share in meeting the needs of the situation. For these reasons rationing must continue. It is clear that, as a matter of principle, the government cannot give away before a display of force, otherwise they would lose prestige and command for the future and would invite similar defiance of necessary measures by the interests affected. Nor can the people of Canada afford to countenance or support such anarchic methods as are being used to defeat rationing in Montreal and some other places. The strikes are having one good effect not intended by those who organized them. They are making more meat available for overseas.

Letter From Ottawa

By J. E. SMITH, M.P. York North

At last the debate on the throne speech has ended and the house is now getting down to the real business of the session. The final division on the debate came just five minutes before closing hour Thursday night and the government had a substantial majority, despite an almost solid vote against it by the combined opposition of the Conservatives, the C.C.F., Social Crediters, Bloc Populaire, and one or two independents from Quebec. The vote was 116 for the government and 91 against.

The debate on the motion to adopt the speech from the throne and on amendments and sub-amendments proposed by opposition groups dragged on for three weeks. It nearly ended many times but someone always popped up to have something to say and keep it going. Agricultural Minister Gardiner finished speaking at 10.55 Thursday evening and as no opposition speaker took the floor, government members called for the question. Speaker Fauteux rose and the debate was ended. The vote on the C.C.F. sub-amendment came first. The speaker asks all in favor to say Aye, and all opposed to say Nay, and a recorded vote is called for by members in any group rising in their places. The speaker then says "Call in the Members." The division bell rings in all the Parliament House corridors. It is a shrill ringing which continues for ten or fifteen minutes which gives members engaged anywhere in the buildings time to get into the chamber.

As members in their seats await the arrival of their colleagues either to relieve the tension or in respect to time honored tradition, they have a free for all sing-song. The French-speaking members lead in Allouette, other groups vie with each other in renditions of My Wild Irish Rose, There's a Long Long Trail and other old favorites. Suddenly the bells cease ringing and the government and opposition whips march smartly down the centre aisle and take their seats. Once the whips enter the Chamber, no member may enter until the vote is taken. A member votes by rising in his place and bowing to the speaker. His name is called out by the deputy-clerk and recorded by the clerk. After all have voted the clerk communicates the count to the speaker. The division is over and the party whips breathe easily again. One duty of the party whip is to see that all members of his party are in the house for a division, and it's quite a responsible and sometimes trying position. W. G. Weir of McDonald, Man., is Liberal whip, and A. C. Casselman, Dundas, the Conservative whip.

The C.C.F. sub-amendment received the almost unanimous support of all opposition groups. One notable exception was J. M. Macdonnell, prominent Toronto financier who represents Muskoka-Ontario. He apparently doesn't like the C.C.F., and he just wouldn't vote with them though his party and leader thought it good party strategy at the moment to do so. Following the defeat of the C.C.F. sub-amendment the Conservative amendment received the support of the C.C.F. and Social Crediters and some Bloc Populaire and one independent from Quebec.

There was considerable jockeying for position and political advantage in the various amendments and sub-amendments submitted. Conservatives naturally dislike both the C.C.F. and Social Credit groups, and this feeling is reciprocated by the C.C.F. and Social Credit members. The C.C.F. and Social Crediters have no particular love for each other and dislike and repudiate each others policies. Of Liberals and Conservatives, I think both the C.C.F. and Social Credit prefer the former but that doesn't mean they love them, but as they say off the record, they regard them as the lesser of two evils. Hence in wording and presenting amendments it sometimes appeared opposition groups were as anxious to put one or the other opposition group on the spot as they were the government.

The final amendments centred round the government announcement of floor price for wheat. Criticism was that the government's wheat policy of $1.55 current ceiling was not high enough and that the five-year guarantee of a price not below a dollar was too low. The government policy after careful study of world market conditions and taking the long view for the future is that it would be short-sighted to hold for the last possible cent at the present time, and thinks $1.55 a fair price. In return it says to the wheat grower for the next five years at least you will not get less than $1.00 per bushel. This is a minimum, not a maximum and the government hopes the floor never will be needed. In any event the policy does give the wheat grower for the first time a definite assurance against a return of the cheap wheat of the early '30's.

Price ceilings during wartime kept prices of farm products from rising, and in return the government policy is to provide that in peacetime the prices of farm produce will be maintained by a floor. It's a reasonable and fair policy which I think has the support of members of all parties in the house and throughout the country.

Prime Minister King is now absent from the house on an extended visit to Britain and other countries in Europe. The Prime Minister's announcement of his proposed trip received the unanimous support of all party leaders.

Mail this week included several letters of thanks for standard time. The "fast time" never seemed popular, particularly in rural areas, and after three years it's a relief to get back to sun time. Thanks for comments on my radio debut Saturday night. Some said I sounded a bit nervous. I guess I was, or maybe it was just static. Anyway I hope to have the opportunity of making another radio talk in the not too distant future.

A few letters have come in with suggestions for the Committee to Prevent Government Waste. Thanks for your cooperation. To be good, government must be close to the people, so let's hear from you. The address is J. E. Smith, M.P., Parliament Buildings, Ottawa.

Next weekend will be Thanksgiving and I will be home in Richmond Hill Saturday, if anyone has any business and wishes to see me.

AUTUMN ODORS

This is the time of year when incense of various kinds rises on the crisp autumn air.

There is the nostalgic smell of burning leaves that brings back memories of childhood, when heaping up the piles of gaily tinted leaves and watching while father applied a match. There was the suspense—would the fire catch and then the breath of relief when the pale grey clouds of smoke arose—the funeral pyre of summer.

There is the clean smell of the freshly turned earth when the sun strikes the rich brown furrows. There is the clean, healthy smell of asters and chrysanthemums as they lift their brave, bright faces into a world from which the more timid flowers are rapidly disappearing. Over all, in town and country, there is the pervading smell of chili sauce and other tomato relishes as tomatoes are made into this and that.

I think in a former incarnation I must have been a chemist or alchemist or some sort of experimenter for I love to try new things. Not being quite as selfish as the woman who would never share a recipe, I'm going to share this one with my readers. Maybe even some of the men who say they read this column would like to try it. I know one of them likes to eat it. It's H.P. sauce and here is the method: 4 large onions, 38 ripe tomatoes (skinned), 4 teaspoons nutmeg, 4 teaspoons cloves, 4 teaspoons allspice (I only put one), 4 teaspoons cinnamon, 3 ground peppers, 4 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon red pepper, 6 cups vinegar, 6 cups brown sugar, 1 1/2 cups flour. Boil until thick, stirring often. Put through a sieve or colander.

And here's one more, for the grapes just in season — grape catsup: Put 6 pounds grapes on to boil in a very little water, add 1 large onion, and cook till very tender. Rub through a colander or sieve. To the pulp thus obtained add 2 pounds brown sugar, 1 pint vinegar, 1 tablespoon each of ground cinnamon, mace, cloves and white pepper and one teaspoon of salt. Boil all together until thick.

I found that one-half these quantities made a nice amount and more suitable for a small family and were not so hard on sugar.

Both recipes are just different enough from ordinary catsups to add zest to the effort of making them, and their ultimate triumph comes when you serve them on your much-debated meat ration. I wonder, by the way, if any of us in our wildest dreams ever imagined that Canada would stage a good imitation of a civil war over MEAT? Maybe we were accepting meat too much as our due, and the spirits of all the animals sacrificed to satisfy our appetites have risen up and created the present crisis.

Whatever the cause, we will eat meat from this time on, with more consciousness of its worth, and certainly the people of today are learning many new lessons. I suppose if we are good students we will see the goal and learn willingly. If not—what?

MAGISTRATE'S COURT $100 Fine Levied For Having 'Swamp Liquor'

A charge of dangerous driving against Lloyd Wm. St. John was dismissed by Magistrate W. E. McIlveen in magistrate's court here Friday. The charge arose following the death of Melvin Lunau who was struck by a truck driven by Mr. St. John. Appearing for the defendant was I. E. Weldon.

Dr. L. W. Dales, coroner, said that Mr. Lunau died of a fractured skull. Constable William Hill testified that he was called to the scene of the accident, east of the Virginia post office, shortly before 10 p.m., Aug. 24. "Mr. St. John told me that he had just met a car as he drove his truck eastwards and had been blinded by the lights. He said he didn't see the victim until after he had hit him."

The victim had been wearing dark overalls and had been walking with the traffic when hit. "It was a dark night and somewhat misty," Constable Hill stated.

"There is no evidence here of dangerous driving by accused," said Magistrate McIlveen dismissing the charge.

Ernest Edwin Ellis and Wm. Foster both pleaded guilty to charges of illegal possession of "swamp liquor." They were each fined $100 and costs or three months. A Royal Canadian Mounted Police officer, S. E. Aicken, testified that while searching the bush north of Queensville, the two accused were found, each carrying a potato sack in which were two one-gallon jugs of liquor. "The dominion analyst's report states that the jugs carried by Foster tested 65 percent proof spirit

41 percent," the officer said. "The facts are that my clients were repairing fences when they found the potato sacks and were taking them home out of curiosity," said Defence Counsel N. L. Mathews, K.C. "Technically they are guilty as charged."

Fred W. Glover, charged with failure to remain at the scene of an accident and with careless driving, was remanded one week. Alexander Brockton, charged with assault, was remanded two weeks on $1,000 property bail.

George M. Hurst, Toronto, was found guilty of theft of a tire from Harry Longhurst, Sutton. A like charge against James Hayes was dismissed. Miss Naomi Sedore said she saw Hurst put a tire into his car where it was parked outside the Longhurst tire shop. Accused denied he had taken the tire. He was fined $50 and costs. The charge was laid by Constable Hill.

Five youths pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy and were given six months suspended sentence. They were forbidden to frequent either of the two dance halls at Musselman's Lake where the incidents occurred. They were accused of swearing and acting in a disorderly manner.

Among the sacrifices made in this war that Canadians will be seeking an accounting of is Dieppe. Mulberry, the prefabricated floating port used in the Allied invasion of Normandy was conceived as a result of Dieppe. Under the sponsorship of the Hudson's Bay Company in collaboration with the Engineering Institute of Canada, a model of Mulberry is touring Canada on loan from the British War Office.

A GOOD FARMER IS A GOOD PLANNER

It's the man who looks ahead who gets ahead.

GOOD management... essential to successful farming, as to any business enterprise... is largely a matter of timely marketing and careful spending... waiting for the time when it is most favourable to buy.

We all want things now... things we have not been able to get for the past several years. Some of these things are necessities... some are things that will contribute to our comforts and pleasures.

Eventually, these things will be more plentiful. By waiting a little longer we will help to keep prices of things we need at lower levels and we will buy at better advantage when we do buy.

Meantime we can invest our savings in the safest securities obtainable... Victory Bonds. More Victory Bonds will be offered this Fall. They pay 3% interest... double bank interest... and they are "liquid capital".

If we need cash in an emergency any bank will buy Victory Bonds at any time. And any bank will loan money on Victory Bonds.

The Ninth Victory Loan will be our last opportunity to buy Victory Bonds for a whole year, so buy double this time—the same rate of savings as in previous loans will pay for twice as many bonds over the 12 month period.

FARMERS CAN BUY VICTORY BONDS ON CONVENIENT
DEFERRED PAYMENTS THROUGH ANY BANK

... just sign a short form letter which Victory Loan Salesmen carry (banks have copies) ordering the bank to buy Victory Bonds for you. Pay 5% when ordering and the balance at any time during the next 12 months. The interest the bonds earn pays the interest on the bank loan.

BOUQUET OF RHUBARB AT MOCK WEDDING

The newly decorated basement room of Ravenshoe church was filled to capacity on Sept. 28 when a shower was held in honor of Evelyn King whose marriage to Kenneth Hunter takes place shortly. Belhaven, Keswick, Elmhurst, Mount Pleasant, Maple Hill and other neighborhoods were represented as well as Ravenshoe.

A burlesque wedding ceremony in which "bride" and "bridesmaid" carried bouquets of rhubarb leaves created much amusement. It is reported, however, that local authorities are investigating the license of the "minister".

Many and various beautiful and useful gifts were presented. Mr. Hunter and Miss King thanked their friends. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by ladies of the church.

Favored with fine weather and with a number of friends from outside the immediate neighborhood present, Ravenshoe evening anniversary service was attended by a capacity congregation on Sept. 23. Dr. H. J. Pritchard, Toronto, formerly of Sutton, substituted for Dr. Pidgeon who was unable to come at the last moment because of illness. Roy Stewart and the Mount Albert singers provided the music.

In the morning Ravenshoe choir sang two anthems and the guest preacher was Rev. Earl Knechtel, Sutton. A congregation of about 80 was present.

Church service and Sunday-school session will be combined for Rally Day and Thanksgiving on Oct. 7. The minister, Rev. Gordon Lapp, and the superintendent, Harold Bray, will be assisted by several teachers and scholars.

DOWN THE CENTRE

Swan-song to that great Newmarket camp hockey team of 1945 has or is about to be written according to the latest dope. Flash Abram, whose real moniker is "Truman", is already discharged and employed at Good-year Tire and that means probable mercantile competition. Chuck Shannon, the bespectacled defence star, and the Al Schacht of the local softball season, will definitely take the ice for Pittsburgh Hornets where they will find a royal welcome awaiting them. Tommy Jamieson, who was a real find last winter and has lapped the big apple with abandon in softball for two seasons, gets a trial with Chicago Black Hawks, reporting to Cleveland first. While he may not make the grade in pro, he definitely is lost to any army team and will probably wind up back in Toronto mercantile.

Earlier in the year Jack Wheeler was discharged and with Irish Doyle bound for university, the defence quartet is no more at No. 23. We have already dealt with the two great pivot stars, Billy Taylor, who next week will join the Maple Leafs with fire in his eye and ready to make good in what will be the toughest test he has ever had, and Joint McComb, who will be showing his swivel hips for maestros Dit Clapper and Art Ross. Taylor is now 26 and out after financial security. McComb is ready for his big chance at 25 and that is not too old in his case.

Johnny Callanan, the tall, handsome Irishman who scintillated on the ball diamond especially and who has never seemed quite the same on the ice since an ankle injury in the 1944 season, is bound for the Hawks and will likely make it with Kansas City. Charlie Nesbitt, the Bradford "Goldilocks" who came from mediocre hockey to turn in three great hockey years in armed services' competition, is away on industrial leave and located in Toronto with a well-known bakery firm. Bep Guidolin returns to the Boston Bruins, better physically for his army experiences and a trifle more mature. Bep, who responds at home to "Armand", turned 20 on the 12th of last month and has years of steady play ahead of him, barring accidents.

One of the fans in Newmarket put it this way as he spoke of McComb's chances, "Guidolin is of course of big league calibre but judging from last year's play he wasn't a bit better than Joint so McComb should be playing right up there with him this year". Nobby Powers will seek a place with either Providence or New Haven but at least will be seen in O.H.A. company. That pretty well takes care of the team except for Jack Life, still at Newmarket and likely to be there for some time, and Capt. Bing Caswell, who stressed last season as his last in hockey. It will be a mighty long time before a better collection of players will ever be gathered together in the Newmarket igloo for action as a team. There may be a hockey team from the camp this season in a military league of some sort but if so, it will be of the vintage of '41 when the first camp team took the ice and was snowed under by Markham Aces. It's mighty hard to think of not seeing these lads in action in canaltown again but their careers will be eagerly followed for in the eyes of many "they're our boys" now. For those who made the team possible and all the thrilling moments in sport these fellows brought to the general public and their soldier buddies, a hearty vote of thanks is due.

Just what is the hockey picture to be in North York this winter? We have had our ear to the ground and this is what we hear these days. Markham would like to play junior hockey again but hopes for a return to the C series where the smaller centres rightly belong. If given C rating it would probably build a team composed of homebrews for truth to tell, both the Markham fans and management are a bit tired of all the inconvenience caused by using a team that is composed practically wholly of imports. They will at least be ripe for a juvenile team but will probably go junior.

Stouffville is talking of junior O.H.A. recalling the fact they contributed such players as Al Boudway, Ike Harper and Jake Baker to the Markies in other seasons. It would probably be better advised to start back in hockey with midget and juvenile teams like it did in baseball until the game gets back on its feet. After all, it is six or seven years since a junior team was iced over there and since then the kid puck artists have been pretty well overlooked.

Unionville would be ready for minor hockey teams and would probably collaborate with Markham in the junior series. Richmond Hill will be back seeking its long awaited title and leaving no stone unturned to provide one. In past years the district collaborated pretty well to help a team finally land a cup and we think the Hill men who have carried on under difficulties the past years are deserving of help from those interested in hockey in other North York centres.

An intermediate O.H.A. entry will again be provided from the bush league which promises to be bigger and better than ever. Aurora, despite what some may think, is not ripe for junior O.H.A. in our opinion. Strong juvenile, midget and bantam teams can be provided and we think Leonard Simmons, Del Babcock and Bill Holloway should be given a free hand in minor hockey again. There is no reason an intermediate team of sorts can not be formed for the O.H.A. There are or will be plenty of players on hand. Bush league hockey will again flourish.

Newmarket will likely stay out of the junior picture but kid hockey is due to see its best season with entries in a district minor circuit. Intermediate hockey should be about ready to go again and a town team would be able to draw players from the camp this year without any trouble. A nice group for travelling is a distinct possibility if the ground work is done now. Sutton will be a certainty for intermediate O.H.A. and for juvenile hockey with Maestro Ellis Pringle again in charge of the Sutton ice palace. The team in intermediate may not be as good as in former years but the Greenshirts will make a start towards postwar development. Schomberg will definitely enter Ontario rural competition and if the plans of Bob Moody materialize, minor hockey teams will be organized throughout the district to provide feeders for whatever O.R.H.A. teams are to be in existence.

St. Andrew's College plans another junior B entry in the prep school O.H.A. group and in addition will have both midget and juvenile entries in the O.H.A. There is the general survey of what we are able to learn right now but no telling what may happen when it gets a little colder and the boys start to hear down on the organization plans with memories of the past playing a big part in their decisions.

Howard Norris, former Aurora resident, has been elected president of the Barrie Junior A hockey club and the Simcoe County residents have made a fine choice for a man to lead them in their big jump to hockey fame. Barrie, incidentally, just about captured the Junior A crown back in 1918 losing out to Toronto De La Salle in the finals. Artificial ice comes to the Barrie arena on Oct. 8 and two attractive games between Buffalo Bisons and St. Louis Flyers that should draw big crowds have already been lined up. They will play on Oct. 8 and again on Oct. 10. The advent of artificial ice in Barrie provides a splendid means for the North York clubs who have already been plagued with the difficulty of securing ice hours in Toronto to get in some early season practice. Gas rationing being lifted will help the situation too.

Norman Heise, former Newmarket-Aurora resident, scored an important turf win last week when Williegivitt, on whose original history this column scored a scoop over the Toronto turf writers, came down in front in the My Dear Stakes. The win stamped the Heise filly as the best of the Canadian juvenile fillies and netted Norm, after all deductions, around $1,550. This brings Williegivitt's earnings to date to $3,200. There is not as much gelt left to the owner as might be thought but Mr. Heise in most cases had some heavy sugar riding with his filly and with a surprise $15.30 price riding for those who play them on the nose, Norm and his friends must have done all right.

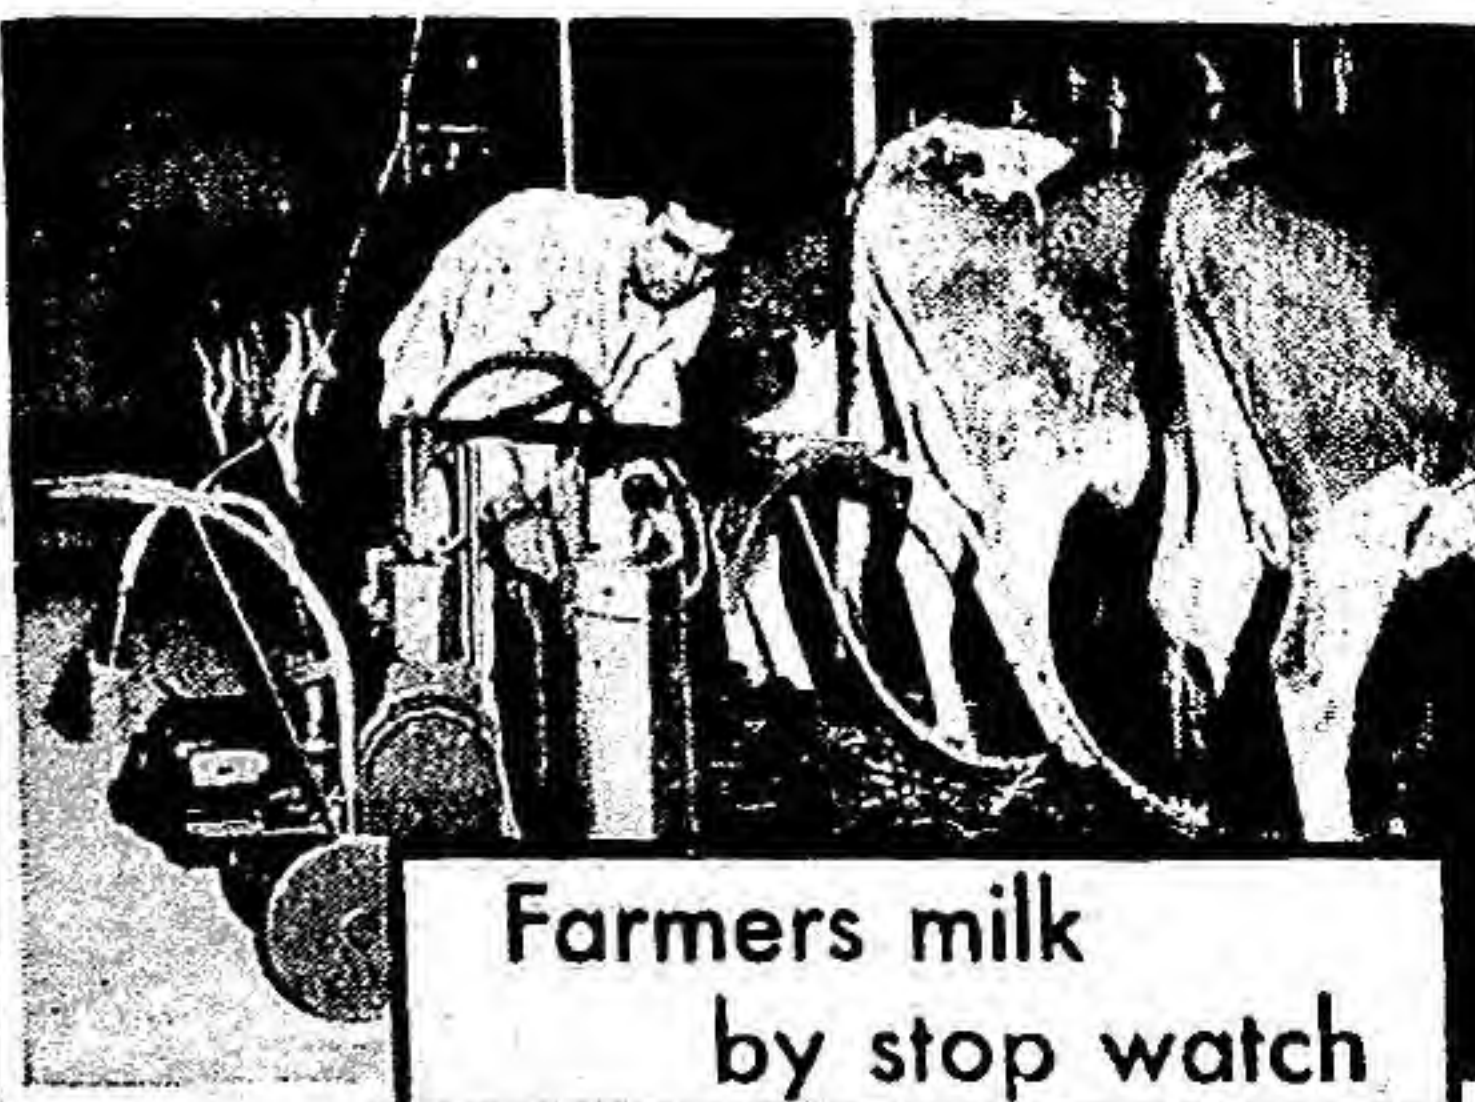

The race was inaugurated to commemorate the performances of My Dear, a game little filly who gave the great Externist or some unexpected competition on the Canadian tracks. By a (Continued On Page 8)

OBTAINING the very best results from a milking machine is just one item in good management. And good management will be essential to profitable dairying in the post-war period.

Advance in breeding, betterments in disease prevention among herds and more efficient sanitation are sure to come. The dairy farmers' problem will be how to make the best use of these advantages—a problem which your agricultural college and experimental stations are tackling now, so that enterprising dairy farmers can have the answers in post-war time. This valuable service, which can mean the difference between profit and loss, will be available . . . for the asking.

The service of money is also an important one. Throughout 90 years the capable branch managers of the Bank of Toronto have helped innumerable responsible farmers with loans and experienced financial counsel—a friendly service which will be invaluable during post-war years.

* PORK - 100,000,000 lbs. still to be shipped.

We supplied only 350,000,000 lbs. to August 31.

* CANNED MEAT - 70,000,000 lbs. still to be shipped.

The United Kingdom and Liberated Europe rely on Canada for 114,000,000 lbs. this year.

We supplied only 44,000,000 lbs. to August 31.

In most liberated European countries; there is a desperate shortage of meat.

As a great food-producing nation, Canada must, can — and will — help to meet the emergency.

The job will not be finished at the year's end. Food scarcities in Europe will continue until the next harvest.

This year, Europe is relying on Canada for a minimum of 789 million pounds of beef, pork and canned meat.

Up to the end of August, only 479 million pounds had been sent.

How soon can we bridge the gap?

Livestock marketings are normally at their heaviest in the last four months of the year.

If we are to help feed the hungry peoples of devastated Europe, this is the time to make our greatest effort.

To do our part, we must reduce our own consumption of meat and also assure that everyone in Canada gets a fair share.

That is why rationing is necessary.

MEAT RATIONING ADDS TO EVERYONE'S WORK

The producer who slaughters, the retailer who sells, the consumer who buys and eats — they all play a vital part.

AS A CONSUMER, HERE IS HOW YOU CAN CO-OPERATE

1. Try to plan your meat purchases before leaving home by determining what cuts you intend to buy and their approximate weights.
2. Make sure you have enough valid coupons and tokens to cover your proposed purchases by referring to the Consumer Coupon Value Chart and the Coupon and Token Calculator. Copies may be obtained from your Local Ration Board or Ration Branch.
3. Know the dates your "M" coupons become valid.
4. Do not buy more meat than you really need.
5. Avoid shopping at rush hours.
6. Be patient. Remember — your butcher may have inexperienced help.

IS HITLER DEAD?

By ORVILLE GANTON

There is considerable discussion as to whether Hitler is dead. There is plenty of evidence close at hand, however, that his filthy Nazi doctrines are very much alive. The war and the events in Europe leading up to it have brought the problem of race forcibly to the attention of all thinking people. Even in the democracies, there is still much misunderstanding and confused thinking on the essential points of the problem. This is, of course, undesirable and unlike many undesirable things it is also unnecessary, since the basic facts about race and racial problems are relatively simple.

At a little nearby lake resort a very refined looking woman expressed great pleasure that 'no Jews came there.'

"How do you know for certain?" I enquired.

"Ah! you can tell them," she answered, carefully scrutinizing me at the same time, "big noses, black hair, swarthy skin."

Of course, the woman was wrong both morally and theoretically. While most Jews are dark haired, the hair of Jews of eastern Europe is frequently ruddy. Of 2,836 adult Jews in New York 57 percent were found to have straight noses, six and a half percent had flat broad noses and 14½ percent had "Jewish" noses.

In the crowded railway smoker I saw a prosperous looking business man turn quickly from his morning paper and excitedly comment, "They had better watch those Russians—that man Stalin is foxy—they will never be satisfied until they rule the world!"

That is exactly the sort of loose talk which is loading the cannon for the next war.

In a chain-store I could not escape hearing these intellectual gems:

Stout woman: "Well the rain keeps raining."

Thin woman: "Yes, makes everything wet. Did you get any bacon?"

Stout woman: "No, I hear they are sending it all down to those foreigners in Quebec. A traveler told me you can get anything you want there."

At a recent ball game here a few confused fans thought it clever and sportsmanlike to hurl insulting remarks from the safety of the crowd at the visiting boys and umpire. If any fans shouted Jew at Detroit's Hank Greenberg or New York's Frankie Crosetti, the police would promptly escort them from the ball-park.

Who said Hitler is dead? A story is going the rounds that Hitler is not dead at all, that they found him in a large Canadian town. He was selling carpets in a store right on main street. He was undisguised and did not even bother to grow a beard.

"But how then did he escape notice for so long?" asked little Willie Quizziboy.

"Well you see son," explained his father, "he just remained his old self. He went on preaching racial discrimination, hating the Jews, cursing the Russians, damning the British. You see son, they could not distinguish him from a lot of other people."

For the Immediate Attention of FARMERS FISHERMEN GUIDES TOURIST OUTFITTERS who have been using MARKED GASOLINE

1. On and after October 1, 1945, gasoline will no longer be marked for special uses.
2. Marking of gasoline for special uses under the jurisdiction of the Oil Controller for Canada having been discontinued, the tax exemption purchase permit system is thereby ended.
3. Farmers, fishermen, guides and tourist outfitters will be entitled to claim refund of the Provincial Gasoline Tax where applicable. Claims, accompanied by receipted invoices, must be submitted to the Gasoline Tax Branch, Department of Highways, Parliament Buildings, Toronto within six months from date of payment of invoices.
4. A simplified method of assuring prompt payment of refunds, eliminating affidavits for each claim, has been worked out.

As there is no rationing of gasoline in Canada, marked gasoline, under the jurisdiction of the Oil Controller for Canada, has been eliminated, thereby ending the tax exemption purchase permit system.

To meet the desire of everyone to be relieved of wartime restrictions, the Provincial Government has developed a new system as free from controls and difficulties as possible. A simplified refund form has been prepared which eliminates the necessity of an affidavit being taken for each refund claim. This form may be obtained on application to the Gasoline Tax Branch, Department of Highways, Toronto, Ontario.

- The ending of marked gasoline sale removes difficulties made necessary by this wartime control.
- Complaints were made that marked gasoline was detrimental to the equipment in which it was being used.
- Records and reports necessary under the marked gasoline system will no longer be required.
- Extra storage facilities will be unnecessary for the separate storage of graded and marked gasoline with consequent saving to the consumer.

Thomas Brydon, 60-year-old Lloydstown farmer, is in a serious condition in a Toronto hospital as a result of an explosion on his farm last week. Mr. Brydon was using dynamite to blow up a stump on his property. When he had lit the fuse and no explosion occurred, he returned after what he thought was a sufficient lapse of time to investigate. When he was a few feet away from the stump, the explosion took place, throwing him heavily to the ground, the concussion and debris inflicting head injuries and shock. He was found by his wife crawling on hands and knees towards the barn. Medical aid was immediately summoned and he was rushed to hospital. It will be some days before the exact extent of the injuries is likely to be known.

SERVING AURORA AND DISTRICT

Back From Overseas

Despite rain, cheering thousands welcomed back to Toronto on Monday the famed 48th Highlanders battalion which has been overseas since 1939 and which saw action in Sicily, Italy and the western front. Returning with the unit were five Aurora and district men, L.-Cpl. John Coulson, Pte. Allan "Turk" Ferguson and Pte. Gordon Latimer of Aurora and Ptes. Charles Little and "Pete" Glass of King township.

Of those who originally went overseas with the unit, only 19 originals still remained. L.-Cpl. Coulson was one of these. An internationally known oarsman, "Johnny" enlisted in 1939 and was with the unit through the thick of everything except for a brief return to Canada on compassionate grounds in 1944. L.-Cpl. Coulson resides at Gairlands Farm, Aurora, and was welcomed by his wife and children.

Pte. Allan Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ferguson, Metcalfe St., enlisted in 1941 with the Canadian Armored Corps and after training at Camp Borden went overseas in 1943, seeing action in North Africa as well as Italy. Last year he transferred to the 48th. The former Aurora junior hockey star was greeted by his wife, parents and brother, Pte. David Ferguson of Aurora. He was wounded in 1944 but is now recovered. He was formerly employed with Collis Leather Co.

Pte. Gordon Latimer enlisted for active service in 1944, going overseas the same year after being at Camp Borden, Debert and Montreal. He was posted to the 48th as a reinforcement and saw service with the unit on the continent. He was employed with the Sisman Shoe Co. and his mother resides on Mosley St.

While not originals with the 48th, Charles Little and "Pete" Glass have been overseas four years and have been lately attached to the 48th. Pte. Little was formerly employed on the Webb farm near Snowball and has many friends in the district. Pte. Glass, a King boy, is well known to former Aurora high school students as bus driver on the school bus operated by Langdons of King.

One of the first Aurora airmen to arrive overseas, Bert MacGirr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacGirr, Mosley St., arrived home this week. Interested in radio before the war, he was posted to this branch of the service with the R.C.A.F. and served in this branch during the defence of Britain and in the years since 1940. He is a former member of the Aurora Cycling club and his father is a veteran of the Great War. He has been on active service since 1940.

Lately arrived home is Lorne Wells of Maple who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells. Mr. Wells was returning officer for North York in the last provincial election. He attended Richmond Hill high school and enlisted in 1943. He was overseas two years, seeing action on the continent.

Council Gives $50 Grant To Aurora Bowling Club

A grant of $50 was made by Aurora town council on Monday to the Aurora lawn bowling club to help defray the expenses of looking after the clubhouse and greens. President Irvin Watts, Secretary Charles Bilborough and George Patterson represented the bowlers before council and told how the club had carried on this year with 14 members and had made expenditures of $361.32 as against receipts of $327.72.

"We have advertised the town with tournaments, saved the town the expense of looking after the property which it would otherwise have had to do and provided recreation for those who wanted to play. We believe the boys coming back will want to join the club and we look for better things another year," said Mr. Watts.

"You are to be commended on your work in view of the small membership," said Reeve C. E. Sparks.

"These are the sort of things we want to keep going. The greens are a credit to the town," said Councillor William West.

"I think we are all agreed that the club is a good thing. It would cost us far more than $50 to look after the property," said Mayor Linton.

"We are lacking in the necessary equipment to look after parks," said Deputy-Reeve A. A. Cook. "We should see what equipment for the parks and streets can be purchased from the War Assets Corporation. There must be plenty available now."

"It would be a good idea to check on that right away," said Mayor Linton.

PLAN 'WELCOME' GIFT FOR VETERANS HOME

Aurora town council will meet on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. in the old town hall to consider the question of welcoming home and making a presentation to Aurora servicemen and women. Invitations are being sent out to town organizations to be represented and any interested citizens are asked to be present, Mayor Ross Linton said.

"We can not let this matter go any longer. We must get a definite plan for the town and get whatever we are going to give the boys ordered," said the mayor. Council has considered several possible ideas for remembrance and these will be placed before the meeting.

"Let's make this a real community effort," said the mayor.

OLD BOYS DEFEATED BY ANDREAN FIRMS

St. Andrew's College firsts, fresh from a 59-0 win over Pickering College firsts, eked out an 8-1 victory on Saturday at the college over the Old Boys. It was a battle for three quarters of the way as the oldsters, fielding such former stars as Bernie Milligan, Don Sabiston and Jack Chipman, put up a grim battle until their condition gave way. It was 1-1 at the half. In the last quarter Blake Taylor scored a rouge and touchdown, converted by Shortly. Sabiston accounted for the Old Boys' single point.

REPLAY NECESSARY IN MOLYNEUX TEST

After 18 holes of play, Mrs. John Ough, Jr., and Miss Pauline McKenzie, the defending champion, were tied in the finals of the Mary Lynne Molyneux trophy at the Highlands Golf club and a replay will be necessary.

In the Dawson Memorial play, Ted Chatterley bested Hugh McRae and Stew Henry defeated Art Peppiatt. The play in this competition still continues.

HAVE 62ND ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. George McMain of Armitage who celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary on Tuesday.

ORGAN CHIMES ARE UNVEILED AT CEREMONY

In a simple but impressive ceremony, the new organ chimes, the gift of Lambert K. Farr, were received and dedicated at Aurora United church on Sunday. Rev. Roy Hicks called upon J. H. Knowles, recording steward, Dr. James L. Urquhart, chairman of the board of stewards, and A. E. Quinn, clerk of the sessions, to unveil the tablet and receive the chimes on behalf of the church. Mr. Knowles gave the address, expressing the congregation's thanks for Mr. Farr's gift.

The tablet, unveiled, read, "The chimes in the organ were donated by Lambert K. Farr as a memorial to his wife, Rosa M. Farr, and her father, Joseph Stephenson, and his wife, Allison Folliott." All three deceased had played an active part in the church's history.

Following the unveiling, the congregation sang All People That On Earth Do Dwell, the dulcet tones of the chimes ringing forth for the first time at worship. The choir sang Shelley's Hark My Soul with Mrs. Lambert Wilson and Joan Harrison taking the solos. Arthur Plumstead of Toronto was guest soloist and Mrs. A. C. A. Willis played as an organ solo with chimes effects The Bells Of Obercovey. In the evening she played in A Monastery Garden.

Flowers in the church were donated by two members of the Aurora Horticultural Society, Mrs. T. A. Hamer and Mrs. Walter Grace, while the flowers on the communion table were the gift of Mrs. Leslie Farr, Calgary, Alta. Over 600 persons were present and every available seat in the church was filled.

NEW INDUSTRY TO ESTABLISH IN TOWN

Aurora is to have a new industry which, it is hoped, will get under way this month but as yet the complete details are not known. The south part of the match factory property, owned by Deputy-Reeve Asa Cook, has been leased by the Canadian Anodizing Company, Ltd., a new firm which will handle the anodizing of aluminum ware. The premises leased are those formerly occupied by the Aurora Engineering Co. and are in excellent condition for a modern plant.

The syndicate in charge is from Toronto and is said to have connections with a large Montreal firm. Only a few key employees will be initially employed. The plant is expected to expand in a modest way as it progresses. The new lessees have taken over the premises and the necessary adjustments for business purposes are under way.

KING TWP. DISPUTES CLAUSE IN FIRE PACT

Mayor Ross Linton was instructed by council to negotiate with King township council in regard to a dispute clause in Aurora's fire agreement with King township. King council has objected to a clause which provides for the indemnification of the town of Aurora and Aurora firemen in case of lawsuit should be brought by any resident of King township against either the town or the brigade members as a result of an accident or mishap while attending a fire.

"It is a very necessary clause," said Town Solicitor Lorne C. Lee. "The chances of such a thing happening are not great but suppose a bystander was accidentally sprayed with chemical or a like accident occurred, we might be sued as well as the fireman. It is included in the agreement with the township of Whitechurch but was not in the first agreement last year with King. I think their solicitor would approve it."

"We can probably settle the matter amicably," said the mayor. "I will take up the matter as soon as possible." Meanwhile Aurora will provide fire protection for the township although the agreement is not signed.

FIRE DESTROYS CAR

Aurora fire brigade was called to the 8th concession of King on Sunday morning when the car of Rev. Harry Wilson of 5th line Baptist church took fire. The fire broke out around 11 a.m. and church goers were afraid the flames would spread to the wooden structure and summoned the brigade. By the time the firemen had reached the scene, the blaze was extinguished. The car was damaged but the church did not suffer.

WAS GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. E. J. Henderson was the guest speaker at Christ church A.Y.P.A., Kettleby, on Friday evening at the first fall meeting.

Extension Of Mains On Wellington St. Ordered By Council

Councillor A. N. Fisher was instructed by Aurora council to investigate the possibility of extending the water mains on Wellington St. E. to the town limits and as soon as possible supply a resident within the town limits with water.

"There will be close to 1,500 feet of pipe necessary to extend the service beyond George St. It will be a fairly costly job," said Clerk A. C. A. Willis.

"The revenue return from one user would not be great but we must keep in mind the fact that there are some good building lots out that way and if water service is provided it would be an incentive to build. If new buildings go up we will have to supply the service," said the mayor.

"I believe in supplying the necessary services, otherwise our population will be the same in 1960 as it is now," said Councillor Dr. Crawford Rose.

"It is suggested that there is a shortage of labor and that the work can't be done now," said Councillor William West.

"I believe there will be surplus labor available within a few months and we could go ahead then."

"Lack of help has slowed down our sidewalk program and the weather has been against us," said Reeve C. E. Sparks. "I am hopeful most of our work will be done before it gets too cold."

The Aurora Building Co. was awarded a contract at $260 to provide a new roof, felt and gravel, with metallic facings for the municipal building, upon recommendation of the property committee. Council also approved the purchase of a Duo-Therm for the public library from William Neal of Richmond Hill at a price of $155. At present a 'used heater is giving satisfaction and the $155 covers the price of a new one to be supplied as soon as available.

Frank Griffith was awarded the vending rights for the booth at the Aurora Arena for the winter for a $10 fee. Mr. Griffith has agreed to repaint and repair the present booth, Councillor R. V. Smith reported.

Town Population Is 3,016, Assessment Is $1,644,741

Aurora's population is now 3,016, according to the town assessor, Major W. H. Taylor, and this does not include residents of transient type. Aurora town council learned this fact on Monday as the veteran town official filed his 17th report. Total assessment for the municipality shows a total of $1,644,741 with land assessed at $416,231, buildings at $1,157,465 and business at $71,045. The present assessment is due to be increased next year as many buildings were under construction at the time the assessment was made and there are possibilities for quite a few more.

"The county officials visited Aurora and picked certain properties as test cases. There were only two differences in their opinion and mine," Major Taylor said. "They subsequently agreed on one of these cases. The fact there are such few appeals each year must indicate people are fairly well satisfied," he said. Major Taylor said the summer system of assessment meant considerably more call backs and now involved around 80 days of work and he felt his salary of $300 was insufficient. Council later in the evening boosted his remuneration by $50.

There are a total of 190 dogs listed, 36 births, 21 deaths and there are 533 children of school age between five and 17. There are around 800 houses in town so that it is not quite averaging four persons per house. There are quite a few large dwellings with only two or three people living in them, he said.

The above figures do not include boarding houses or the hotel so the actual per-house occupancy is less than four per house.

Court of Revision to consider assessment appeals was set for 7 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 5, with a court composed of the mayor, reeve, deputy reeve and Councillors A. N. Fisher and Dr. Crawford Rose. Their duties are not expected to be onerous.

RAISE SALARIES OF POLICE CHIEF, JANITOR

Two salary raises were approved by Aurora council on Monday evening. Following a discussion of police problems with Chief Constable Fisher Dunham, the chief received a salary raise of $1.50 per week over his previous salary of $31. Police trips and car up-keep are still on the same basis.

Leo Hodgins, town caretaker, who has now the additional duties of fires and care of the two public school rooms in the Aurora town hall, as well as looking after the fires in the Aurora public library, received a weekly increase of $2.50 to bring his salary to $23 per week.

The Y.W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Marshall Rank.

are the winners of the South Simcoe girls' softball championship and as most of the team will be available for another season, it looks as if Beeton is again on the way to producing one of the best district clubs just as they did around 15 years ago. Marj McCannan will be able to wear a P.W.S.U. senior championship crest on her windbreaker this fall, her team having won the provincial senior crown, although not as yet league winners in the Sunnyside circuit. Judging from the present trend of things, her team is not likely to be so either. Marj is playing great ball right now and is back to her 1944 performances when she rated as one of the best in Ontario.

Wid Scott, who played for Aurora juniors back in the early 30's and came to Aurora as the younger brother of defenceman Bob Scott, has been discharged from the armed forces and has been playing a dandy game at the initial sack for Greaves who were finalists in the Gravenhurst town league.

Ken Guilfoyle pitched Allandale C.N.R. to the championship of the Centre Simcoe softball circuit, the railwaymen winning over Angus in the finals, four games to two. On that same C.N.R. team were such favorites of other days as catcher Jimmy Johnson, first sacker Archie Marshall, second baseman Morris Stransman, third baseman Earl Marshall and centre fielder Bud Kashner, all of whom were familiar figures in the York-Simcoe league and battled it out with Newmarket Redmen either in the garb of Roxy Aces, Allandale Imperials or Barrie Collegians. The series for the unofficial district title may still be played, at least Allandale is trying to arrange it. Present plans, depending on whether Manager Charlie Ryan considers it too late in the year, are for Rose-laws to make the trip to Barrie on Saturday, Oct. 6, with the return game in Aurora, Newmarket or Toronto on Oct. 13. Bruce Reynolds, manager of the Allandale team, is negotiating arrangements with Ryan.

Joe Buda, who pitched Mother Parker's to the Toronto senior B championship, and also aided Newmarket camp, lost two close games to Oshawa in the provincial playdowns and has finished his pitching for the year. Bill Chris, former defenceman for Richmond Hill juniors in the O.H.A. and who is a sweet softball receiver and one of the most promising young soccer players in the Queen City, proved his versatility by umpiring the series.

Jimmy Young, well known district sportsman, has been named as president of the Richmond Hill curling club, one of the most progressive sporting organizations in the district. Curling is playing a very important part in the community life of many centres throughout North York. When will Aurora and Newmarket provide suitable facilities for playing this game is the question. It is not necessarily an older man's game as so many think but in our opinion ranks with golf or lawn bowling as a means of providing inexpensive and healthy recreation for fellows who need it.

Eighteen has been set as the age limit for the N.H.L. clubs to draft players and the amateur moguls think they have achieved something. But there still remains the iniquitous fact that a player can be placed on a professional club's reserve list whether he likes it or not and at any age. Eighteen may well be considered the proper age for a boy to go to the N.H.L. but if we recall rightly, King Clancy, Aurel Joliat, Jack Darragh and Goldie Prodgers were only 16 when they left the simon pures. Milt Schmidt and Bep Guidolin were 17 and Teeter Kennedy of the Leafs was just 18. We have probably missed a lot of others but it seems to indicate if you're good enough, age doesn't matter much.

Windy O'Neil, piano-playing youngster of the Toronto Leafs who just failed to click, is now at Port Arthur with Happy Emms' St. Louis team. Turk Broda, still overseas despite rumors, will not return to the Toronto Leafs, if, as and when. Broda, so it is said by those in the know, is headed for the Chicago Black Hawks. Steve Young, veteran Richmond Hill softballer, is in England with R.C.E.M.E. and from all reports is likely to be doing skilled automotive work overseas for some months. Brother Walter Young, who used to cavort on the lacrosse floor with the Hill, is a three-hooker with the infantry at Camp Borden.

John Stuart has been doing a bit better in the racing world the past few weeks. Orenco, Rice Cake, Floyson and Jacless have all come through and several others have placed in the money. Rice Cake and Orenco look the best of the present crop of jumpers. Jack Leeming, who played defence for No. 2 C.A.C. T.R. against Newmarket a couple of years ago, has won himself a place with Argonauts in the Big Four since his discharge from the army.

Along with countless others, we regret to record the death of Arthur Hulbert, professional for 22 years at the Thornhill Golf and Country club. Art came to Thornhill in his 20th year and had done much to make it one of the leading clubs in the country. We saw him and exchanged a few words at the Canadian Open this year, the holding of which at Thornhill was one of his big moments. A fine teacher and Alpine, who has recently returned from overseas. We are having a lot of rain throughout this district but not much frost. The corn is still green.

In Memoriam

Firth—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Dan Firth, who passed away October 5, 1939.

No one knows how much we miss you.

No one knows the bitter pain we have suffered. Since we lost you.

Life has never been the same. In our hearts your memory lingers.

Sweetly tender, fond and true; There is not a day, dear mother, that we do not think of you.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by husband and family.

Jones—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Robert William Jones, who passed away October 5, 1936.

Deep in our hearts a memory is kept. Of the dear one we loved and will never forget.

Though his smile has gone forever And his voice we cannot hear, We shall never lose sweet memories

Of the one we loved so dear. The years are swiftly passing But still we can't forget

And in the hearts that loved him His memory lingers yet. Sweetest memories are our greatest treasure

Of happy days we spent together. Love's greatest gift, remembrance.

Always lovingly remembered by his wife, Clara, and family, Bob, Percy, Bill, Ivy, Lillian and Mary.

Stewart—In loving memory of our only son and brother, FO Donald B. Stewart, R.C.A.F., who was reported missing while on anti-submarine patrol in the Atlantic Ocean, out from the Bay of Biscay on October 4, 1943, and later presumed dead.

He is gone but not forgotten. And as dawn another year, In our lonely hours of thinking

Thoughts of him are always near. Days of sadness still come o'er us,

Friends may think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow That lies within the heart concealed.

Lovingly remembered by mother, dad and Marion.

Stewart—In proud and loving memory of my dear husband, FO Donald B. Stewart, R.C.A.F., reported missing on October 4, 1943, later presumed dead.

No morning dawns, no night returns But I think of you. Too dearly loved to ever be forgotten. Doris.

Whyte—In loving memory of our dear brother, William Graver Whyte, who passed away Sept. 30, 1933.

Somewhere back of the sunset Where loveliness never dies He lives in the land of glory

With the blue and the gold of the skies. And we who have known and loved him,

Whose departure has brought sad tears, Will cherish his memory always To brighten the passing years.

Lovingly remembered by Margaret and Herbert.

Wylder—In loving memory of a dear father, Oliver Wylder, who passed into rest Oct. 1, 1944.

Rest on, dear dad, thy work is o'er, Thy willing hands will toil no more,

O loving father, kind and true, No one on earth we'll find like you. Daughter, Annie, and family.
